Festival String Players Arrive This Week End, Chorale Due Wednesday

Preparations for the twenty-third annual Carmel Bach Festival were intensified this week, following the arrival here of festival conductor and director Sandor Salgo, his assistant from Pasadena, pianist and harpsichordist Ralph Linsley, and Mrs. Salgo, who is also a rehearsal assistant.

This week end the string players of the 48-piece festival orchestra, will arrive to begin rehearsing Sunday evening.

Rehearsals of the local chorus were also stepped up this week, preparatory to the arrival next Wednesday of the Los Angeles festival chorale. The rest of the orchestra personnel is also due Wednesday. Instrumental rehearsals will be held every morning of next week in Sunset Auditorium, scene of all the festival's major concerts July 18-24.

This year's program, described by Salgo as "especially interesting from an artistic standpoint," includes the St. Matthew Passion, the Bach Magnificat, The Play of Daniel which is a 12th Century work, and a number of premieres of unperformed or unpublished music of the baroque period.

Among the latter are the Sinfonia of Michele Stratico, which will be a first performance anywhere; the Concerto for Two Violins by Chevalier de St. George, which will be a first West Coast performance, and a United States premiere of Scheffelhut's Lieblisches Fruehlingsang.

The Play of Daniel, a dramatic liturgical work believed to be the forerunner of both our modern opera form and of all church works such as Bach's "passions," will be a West Coast premiere.

This year's festival, which is the first since the death of its co-founder and manager for many years, Dene Denny, is being operated by a board of directors.

Heading the board in the absence of its president, Mrs. A. M. Allen of Point Lobos, is Fr. H. M. M. Nicholas, assistant rector of All Saints' Church and Carmel musician. Mrs. Jay Chappell is secretary and Mrs. Alastair MacKay, business manager of the festival.

Among those expected to converge on Carmel in the next two weeks are a galaxy of artists rep-

Critics Hear New Compositions At Asilomar Conference

The National Music Critics' Conference at Asilomar started Friday with a demonstration rehearsal of conducting technique by Dr. Richard Lert, followed by four contemporary works; a Suite for Orchestra by Ulysses Kay of New York, a composition of true musical worth conducted by John Heirsox, conductor of the Rio Grande Orchestra, Santa Fe, New Mexico; a Concert Overture by Bovicchi, Guy Taylor of the Phoenix Orchestra, conductor; Suite No. 2 by Bartok, Ronald Ondrejka, conductor of Radio City Music Hall, New York, conducting, and an Experiment in Sound by Lou Harrison, conducted and discussed by Mr. Erno Daniel.

Nine critics present were re-

Council Says No To Hike In Over-Time Parking Penalty

The student city council's recommendation that the city raise the over-time parking fine from $2.00 to $4.00 finally got action last night from the official city council: a big, loud "no."

At the yearly meeting of high school students, sitting as city council in May, the students recommended the increase to offset increased costs of regulation.

Councilman John Chitwood said that he looks on $4.00 as a lot of money. What are people to do when they can't find parking? It's up to the city to alleviate the situation by providing parking, etc.

Police Chief Clyde Klaumann, reporting that there are about 65 over-parking tickets issued a month, said there would be "too many kicks" if the fine were increased.

Councilman Gunnar Norberg's was the only vote in favor of the increase.

The council dismissed without discussion the students' recommendation that "steps be taken to prevent monopolization of parking spaces by merchants and employees." Then somebody wondered how Monterey was handling the problem and Russell Zaches, City Attorney for Monterey who is vacation replacement for Carmel City Attorney John Morse, told the council that Monterey has raised the over-parking fine to $5.00 at the request of the merchants as a deterrent to their and their employees' monopolizing the parking spaces. The merchant association has tried to police itself.

LIQUOR STORE ROBBERY

A break-in at Ted's Carmel Liquors on Dolores Street last night resulted in the loss of $30 in change from an open cash register and an undetermined quantity of cigarettes and candy. Eight cases of liquor and four cases of beer were taken from the premises but recovered. Whoever broke into the store presumably became frightened and abandoned the cases 100 feet from the back entrance, according to Ron Pollacci, manager.

Entrance was gained through a broken back door and window.

County Counsel Takes Action In M. Marcus Case

Carmel Unified School District trustees took further action this week in the case of Martin Marcus, Sunset School science teacher, who allegedly refused under oath to answer questions put to him at subcommittee hearing of the House Un-American Activities Committee in San Francisco on May 12. The action came following a reply to the board's second request for a transcript of the hearing, also for evidence and information which led the committee to ask Marcus to appear before them.

Superintendent of Schools Stuart Mitchell received the reply on Tuesday from William A. Wheeler of Fullerton, investigator for the subcommittee of the House Un-American Activities Committee, stating that Wheeler had sent to Washington for the transcript of the subcommittee hearing. The transcript will be forwarded to Carmel Unified School District trustees, as they requested on June 1, according to Wheeler's reply.

In answer to the second request of the board at that meeting, Mr. Wheeler replied that this type of information is given only to the legal representative of the school district, and added that he would be glad to cooperate in this respect, also. The same day, Superintendent (Continued on Page Eighteen)

School trustees and the executive bond committee will meet with Dr. Edgar Morphet and Dr. John G. Ross of the University of California tomorrow evening at 7:00 o'clock in the high school music building. Dr. Morphet and Dr. Ross will give both groups up-to-date future enrollment projections for the district.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 o'clock the board and committee will visit Walter Colton Junior High School in Monterey to see what are requirements for a modern junior high school. A junior high school instead of a new high school has been suggested for Carmel district.

Forest commissioners Tuesday night requested the city council to budget funds for planting 230 trees and 20 shrubs in four city areas, also to set aside $500 for promotion and education purposes.

The areas designated for planting in 1960-61 are Junipero Street between Second and Eighth Avenues, Ocean Avenue from Junipero to Carpenter, the First and Mission Street park site and the sand dunes north of Ocean Avenue.

Planting suggested was 200 pines also live oaks, redwoods and Monterey cypress for the other 30 tree plantings. Shrubs suggested were 15 ceanothus, five toyons, all at the park site.

Carmel's share of state gas tax and engineering funds for the fiscal year that ended on June 30 amount to $12,994, according to the California Department of Public Works. These funds are used for city street work.

We liked the picnic place markers which appeared on Reamers Beach the evening of the Fourth. Old Glory fluttered from a pole atop a mound, Iwo Jima style, to tell friends of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Draper and Senator and Mrs. Fred Farr where to find them.

A red, white and blue streamered bull pinata was attached to another pole to inform friends of the Gus Arriolas, Will Shaws and Harlan Watkins where they had located.

The city council on its July tree tour Tuesday allowed John Haloran a driveway variance on Santa Rita Street; approved professional diagnosis of the condition of the tree on Junipero Street in front of the Belvill building that Superintendent William Askew Jr. says is dangerous and should be

ANNUAL REPORT

By Robert E. Smith, Chief

This report is a summary of the activities of the Carmel-by-the-Sea Volunteer Fire Department from July 1, 1959 to June 30, 1960.

A total of 848 men answered 65 fire calls, of these, 43 were still alarms, 22 were general alarms.

There were over 230 inspections made, not counting the insurance group who inspected and surveyed the business district.

The first aid men of the Department made 63 calls in the ambulance. Some of these calls involved a great deal of rescue work, i.e. Point Lobos.

The Department laid enough hose to reach from the city of Carmel to the city of Monterey.

There were enough ladders raised that if stacked on top of each other, there would have been enough to reach to the roof of a 36-story building.

The volunteer firemen spent 1060 man hours or 132 working days training. Many extra hours were spent at various public functions. Other members spent time training at some of the California State Fire Training Schools.

Seven men were injured during the year. The injuries ranging from eye injuries to poison oak and smoke inhalation. Approximately 15 work days were lost due to these injuries.

The replacement cost of the property at risk amounted to $1,838,008. The loss as a result of fire $22,690 or about 2%.

In the city, there resulted one death by fire and one arson fire.

In responding to the 65 fire calls, the greatest response was to

State Calls For Bids On New Bridge Over Dolan Creek

Construction of a 414-foot two-lane reinforced concrete girded bridge over Dolan Creek, approximately 15 miles south of Big Sur on State Sign Route 1, will get under way shortly as the Division of Highways began calling for bids on the project.

Bids will be opened in Sacramento on August 3, and construction is expected to begin in September following award of contract to the low qualified bidder.

Work will include removal of the present 516-foot redwood timber structure which was originally constructed in 1934. The new bridge and approaches will be located approximately 100 feet upstream from the present bridge.

Approximately $470,000 in State Highway Funds is available for the project which is expected to be completed in approximately 250 working days.

Premium Books Listing Prizes At Co. Fair Office

Premium books listing classes, prizes and deadline dates for entering articles in the Monterey County Fair are now available at the fair office.

Last year, potential fair exhibitors failed to win $15,000 of the $57,000 premium money because they neglected to enter exhibits or tried to enter after deadline dates had passed.

Premiums totaling $58,500 are being offered this year.

County homemakers can capitalize on their domestic talents by competing for some of the $4,286 being awarded in the Home Economics Department.

Both amateur and commercial gardeners will share $7,000 in premiums offered in the Floriculture Department.

Members of 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers of America may claim $10,873 in premium money.

The West's top horsemen will compete for $14,380 in prize money in the fair's National Horse Show.

Complete instructions for entering all fair departments can be found in the premium books. Both books and entry blanks can be obtained at the fairgrounds office, P.O. Box 1151, Monterey.

This year's fair will run from August 24 through 28.

BOY SCOUT OPEN HOUSE

Monterey Bay Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, will hold open house at Pico Blanco Scout Reservation on the north fork of the Little Sur River on Sunday. Interested persons can reach the camp by leaving the coast highway

Art On The Peninsula—

Carmel photographers are invited to compete in the photographic contest of the Placer County Fair, July 27-31, according to Les McClure, secretary-manager. Cash premiums amounting to $230 will be divided among winners. Only prints affixed to 16 x 20 light-colored mounts will be accepted. Colored slides are limited to 2 x 2 inches. Subject matter is open. Entry blanks may be obtained by writing Box 710, Roseville.

Mr. McClure emphasizes that the exhibit will be conducted according to recommended practices of the Photographic Society of America.

Monterey County Fair has only ribbons to offer the winners in its photographic show, and entries are limited to residents of Monterey, Santa Cruz, Santa Clara, San Benito and San Luis Obispo Counties, but it is a well established exhibition and the high quality of the work displayed makes winning a ribbon in this show a prideful achievement.

Exhibition time is August 24-28. Last date the hanging committee will receive prints, August 14. Jury of selection is Russell Cummings, Beauford B. Fisher, E. C. Forsyth.

Entry blank, which also lists conditions of entry, may be obtained by writing Photographic Exhibit, Monterey County Fair, Box 1151, Monterey, California. Further information may be obtained from any of the seven committee members, two of whom are Carmel residents: Ruth Velissaratos and Barbara Mackenzie. Other committee members are: E. L. Modlin, Monterey, chairman; Olivia Young and George D. Young, Pacific Grove; James M. Dalton, Watsonville, and George F. Frye, Salinas.

An exhibition of paintings by Paul Darrow opens tomorrow at the Drake Gallery, San Carlos at Eighth, and will remain on display through July.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Drake, who operate the gallery, have sent out invitations for a reception honoring Mr. Darrow which will take place at the gallery this evening from 5:00-7:30 o'clock.

The Lawrence Drake Gallery is open daily except Mondays from 12:30-5:30 o'clock.

at Palo Colorado Canyon then following the canyon road 13 miles. Luncheon may be purchased if reservations are made in advance at council headquarters in the Crocker-Anglo Bank Building in Salinas, according to council president, Ree C. Grim.

Markham Johnston of Carmel is council camping and activities chairman.

Leave It To Jane At The Studio Is Gay, Entertaining

By Patricia Hall

S.R.O. at the Studio Theater on Dolores Street where Leave It To Jane is playing week ends. This is a show you can take family or out of town guests to and know they will enjoy an evening of fast moving, gay entertainment. Though this college comedy is set in an earlier generation, the presentation is as modern as tomorrow and sparkles with light-hearted gaiety. The songs by Jerome Kern are tuneful and well sung. The choreography by Betty Hackett is the enjoyable "hoofing" of that era.

When Jerry De Bono directs, you know the play will be a happy selection and that the light, fast-moving pace so essential to the enjoyment of a musical is maintained throughout.

Costumes by Lucy Brown were delightful.

It was a pleasure to listen to the excellent piano playing by Gary Carver at the Studio for his third summer.

The cast is made up of good-looking young people who play their parts with such sparkling exuberance that it is difficult to single them out for special mention. Carol McLin was well chosen as star. She is pretty and winsome, is graceful and has a lovely singing voice.

Peggy Chandler, as the athletic girl with a sprinkling of freckles across her nose, is very good.

Frankie Dewey, a talented young Midshipman Second Class Michael M. Raggett arrived home last week to spend summer leave from the United States Naval Academy with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Raggett.

Mike has just finished two weeks of amphibious warfare training at Little Creek Naval Amphibious Base, Norfolk, Virginia. He was regimental staff officer in charge of the 159 members of his Annapolis class taking part in the training which ended with an amphibious landing at Camp Pendleton, Virginia.

This winter Mike was selected as one of the Naval Academy midshipmen to go to the Air Force Academy in Colorado for two weeks on an exchange program. This spring he has been competing in eastern meets as a distance runner on the Naval Academy track team. He graduated from Carmel High School in 1958.

comic, was delightful and when she and Cliff Berry made a team, they almost stole the show.

Clifford Anderson, as the college professor, added just the right touch of decorum. His singing of Seeing Nellie Home during the Glee Club sequence was a pleasure to listen to.

Critics Hear New Compositions At Asilomar Conference

quired to hand in reviews of the above to Miles Kastendieck of the New York Journal-American who is president of the Critics National Association. Greetings were voiced by Mrs. Helen Thompson, Executive Secretary of the Symphony League, and were also to have come from Edward Kennedy of the Monterey Peninsula Herald, who, unfortunately was unable to be present. Thomas Sherman, Music Editor, St. Louis Dispatch, Ruth Tripp, Critic of Providence, Rhode Island, Journal-Bulletin, were among the winning Critics for published feature articles sent since the Critics' Convention in Washington in October.

Alexander Fried of the San Francisco Examiner was chairman of the session Saturday for analysis of the reviews of Friday night's rehearsal. Saturday eve, there was a study session on conducting technique and its problems, headed by the Artistic Directors Drs. Lert and Daniel with Manager of the Pittsburgh Symphony, John S. Edwards who is also president of the League, in the chair. A seminar on 'The State of Today's Music' was held on Sunday, for which Lowell Durham, Critic of the Salt Lake Tribune, was chairman. There have been 12 critics from eight states present, including Vancouver, B.C. Further report on the League activities which ends on July 15 will be made next week.

removed; referred a wooden walkway request at Hofas House to the lands and improvements committee for study; referred a request for reduction of a traffic hazard at a driveway at San Antonio and Fourth to the city engineer. Councilman Francis Whitaker suggested and the council approved that a Slow—15 Miles Per Hour sign be placed in the vicinity of the driveway at an appropriate point north of Fourth Avenue.

For 45 years the Pine Cone has been published each week. Back files contain a wealth of data on all aspects of community life from village days to the present time. It is the official newspaper of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea. It has always been a locally owned and operated business.

The proposed new city zoning ordinance listed uses do not include newspapers, not even conditionally. Last week Admiral C. W. Fisher, chairman of the Citizens Committee, asked the planning commission that, in all four planned business district zones, only listed uses be permitted, others prohibited. He also stated that 49 new business uses are included in the four zones and cited as examples, exterminators (shop and yard), taxidermist establishments and diaper services. Printing shops are a permitted use in C-1-C zone (central commercial district).

We are puzzled. Under new zoning are we to be exterminated, stuffed and mounted, then exhibited in a museum (an allowed use in the ordinance)? Are we to be reborn as a printing shop and enter the population explosion use class with diaper services? Or should we just go climb a pine while there is still one left in the business district, as our name suggests, and fight ips.

The forest commission might take care of us, the planning commission hasn't. And there's always the eleemosynary institutions allowed in new central district zoning under a use permit. Our dictionaries might be useful there.

with the city tree planting policy.

The city will contribute materials to the amount of about $100 each in two co-operative storm drain and curb construction projects: with Edith Larsen at northwest corner of Junipero and Fifth Avenues, and with Carmel Plaza, Junipero and Ocean.

De Vera Marcus was given permission to use the Forest Theater for six weeks for rehearsal and production of The Emperor's New Clothes by the Children's Drama Workshop of the Golden Bough. The play will be performed in the daytime and on the ground in front of the stage since stage and lighting are in disrepair.

Mayor Frank Putnam referred to the land and improvement committee, Whitaker and Gunnar Norberg, Julia Minor's letter which points out that children playing on the bank at Mission and Tenth are in danger of falling into the heavily travelled street below.

Land and improvement committee was also assigned to the problem of working out a barrier to prevent parking on the sidewalk of Fifth Avenue west of Dolores Street. Tree planting was suggested.

The council put over for committee study the proposal of Peter Nichols that courtesy notices rather than a citation be given violators of the city ordinance which prohibits "For Sale" signs on cars. Nichols, an art student, had been fined $5.00 for leaving his car with a for sale sign parked in front of the Carmel Art Institute. Bert Heron appeared before the council urging the courtesy notice, in that many persons are not aware of the Carmel ordinance.

United California Theatres, Inc., was put on notice that the city would take action if the curb and loading zone, ordered September, 1959 were not installed within 30 days.

The city council passed a resolution in support of the County Board of Supervisors in the pending suit of the billboard companies against the county over enforcement of the billboard ordinance.

The people of Carmel have a right to be proud of their volunteer firemen, who serve with little pay, but serve for the best interest of the community and its citizens.

I would like to commend and thank the volunteers for their fine work and full cooperation in the past year.

resenting some of the country's finest symphonies and other musical organizations, as well as ticket-holders from Florida, New York, Massachusetts, Colorado, Illinois, Arizona, Texas, Washington and many other states outside of California.

A particularly distinguished participant this year will be Glynn Wickham of Bristol University faculty, a specialist in and author on medieval drama, who will direct

The Play of Daniel.

Six of the Monterey Peninsula's own musicians will appear in the festival orchestra, and four Carmelites in the Festival Chorale.

The instrumentalists are violinists Fr. Nicholas, John Erickson, Eiko Yoshizato and Cecilie Jones, cellist Mary Dobel and flutist Ray Fabrizio. Two former Peninsulites, Nancy Green of Chicago, and Joseph Axup of Sacramento, will also be orchestra members.

Chorale Carmelites are Carolyn Solmonson, Carol McLin and Barbara Tuttle, all sopranos. Tom Golecke of the U. S. Army Language School is a chorale tenor.

Again this year Miss Angie Machado of Carmel has been chorus rehearsal director for the local area, and assistant to conductor Salgo.

Single tickets for many of the festival performances are still available at the festival box office in the Graham Music Company. The box office is staffed this year by Miss Philippa Hastings, a newcomer to Carmel.

Wilderness Of The West

A Monthly Column
by C. Edward Graves

LET'S SAVE RAINBOW BRIDGE

The efforts of dedicated conservationists to save some of the small remaining wilderness areas of this country are meeting with obstructions of many kinds. Most of the opposition comes from those who hope to profit financially from the privilege of exploiting our public lands in various ways. This opposition has been organized in such a way that it influences strongly certain of our governmental agencies.

An excellent example of this is the case of Rainbow Bridge and its protection from the waters impounded by Glen Canyon Dam in Utah. Rainbow Bridge is so well-known as one of the nation's supreme natural spectacles that it seems hardly necessary to elaborate on this point. The danger to which it will soon be submitted by the rising waters of Glen Canyon Reservoir is not so well-known and perhaps should be described briefly.

Rainbow Bridge is in a National Monument, specifically set aside for its protection. It is in a real wilderness setting, reached only by a 14-mile trail over difficult but beautiful desert country. Joe Carithers, well-known to many local people from his residence in Carmel Valley when he was serving as Assistant Western Representative of the National Parks Association, recently made the trip in there with his wife and describes it in the June issue of National Wild-lands News. From the Bridge a steep-sided canyon, known as Bridge Canyon, leads down to the Colorado River where Glen Canyon Dam is being built.

The rising waters of this reservoir will soon flood Bridge Canyon and imperil the foundations of Rainbow Bridge. The setting of a supreme beauty spot will be ruined by the debris and muddy ugliness common to all draw-down reservoirs. When the Colorado River Storage Project Act was passed in 1956, an agreement was written into the law that funds would be provided to build a protective barrier below the Bridge. Conservationists insisted on this provision before agreeing to support the Act.

Now Congress under the influence of the Bureau of Reclamation and the opponents of the National

Why people like to save at Crocker-Anglo Bank

It could be they like doing business with California's oldest national bank. Stability is a comforting feeling in this era of speed and change. Could be, too, that they like the prompt, attentive, personal service they can count on at Crocker-Anglo.

And it could be they like the two kinds of interest they get at Crocker-Anglo: the interest their savings earn and a high rate of human interest, too. For all these reasons — and more — why don't you bank with Crocker-Anglo? You'll like the way Crocker-Anglo does business.

Music On The Peninsula

BY MARY LINDSAY-OLIVER

The American Symphony League has been at Asilomar since June 25. The executive secretary, Helen M. Thompson, whose tremendous accomplishment of bringing the country's orchestral interests together is unique in American musical annals, not only has done this but operates the League's National Headquarters as a clearing house for the President's musical efforts of the People to People's program, also as office for the National Music Critics' Association.

Immediately following the success of the League's annual convention at St. Louis, Mrs. Thompson was found busy all over the place when I reached Merrill Hall Monday evening, even joining the orchestra for a half-hour with her violin as Directors Richard Lert and Erno Daniel coached the conductor and orchestra of 75 players who came from 20 states and four different countries, U.S.A., Canada, Mexico and Austria. There are 16 conductors so far on the list, including ten who also play in the orchestra, receiving the valuable instructions of the famous expert, Dr. Lert.

When I first came to America no one could have imagined such an enterprise. Indeed, there were then only a few symphony organizations in the biggest cities. Today there are hundreds. Yet how little is done for really great talent, and nothing for it from the government though the arts and literature bring greater status and progress to a country than commerce.

The National Music Critics' Association met with the League on July 1-4 to accommodate Western critics unable to go to Washington last October. Composers on hand so far listed are Ulysses Kay from New York, John Vincent, Los Angeles, and Lou Harrison with more coming.

Unfortunately there cannot be a concert this year, like last summer, because so much ground has to be covered up to July 16 in the earnestness with which these conductors, composers and players come, even from Canada and Austria. However, there will be some open times announced when the public can hear rehearsals.

Charles Gigante, present conductor of the Tri-City Symphony Orchestra (Davenport, Rock Island and Moline) which I helped to bring about when living there and wrote their program notes, besides being critic on Moline Dispatch, told me of excellent progress with now a $50,000 budget and the new Augustana College Concert Auditorium, and of many residents and players, still there that I know. Also, he had met Gregory Millar from New York at the St. Louis Convention.

Perhaps out of this concourse will come the new conductor for the Monterey County Orchestra, though most of them have positions. Stanley Cummings is on the League Board and might agitate for the right one!

The Leslie Decks Enjoy Opera, See U-2 Plane In Moscow

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Deck returned to Carmel on Saturday after a trip to Norway, Poland, Sweden, Finland, Germany, Denmark, Holland, Belgium and Russia. They sailed from New York on May 26 on the S.S. Brazil, their headquarters throughout the Northland cruise, and flew by Russian jet from Leningrad to Moscow where they saw the American U-2 plane on exhibit in a museum. They also attended an opera in the Russian capital and report it was "a superb performance, the only thing in Russia that really impressed us."

Mr. Deck took 400 photographs for colored slides on his travels and bought 500 more. He plans to show these this winter after returning from Japan. The Decks leave for the Orient on August 19.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON
Self-examination and purification of thought are essential to spiritual progress. This is a theme to be dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson - Sermon entitled "Sacrament" is the Golden Text from Psalms (139:23, 24):
"Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."

Citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include (8:28-30): "We should examine ourselves and learn what is the affection and purpose of the heart, for in this way only can we learn what we honestly are."

Scriptural selections will include the following verse: "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me" (Psalms 51:10).

Wharf Theatre Re-Opens With Lively Production Of West Side Story

BY VIRGINIA SHAW

A burned-out company and a run-down playhouse celebrated a brilliant dual re-emergence last Friday night with the SRO opening of the Wharf Theatre and Opera House in Monterey.

The old T. A. Work Theatre, derelict after declining years as a vaudeville and movie house, has been beautifully renovated to its original decor and prestige as a first-class legitimate theatre. With this handsome, spacious house, and the ability of directors Thomas Brock and Robert Carson to corral the choicest material, the ambitious Wharf enterprise celebrates its tenth anniversary.

Brock and Carson have scored a coup de theatre in offering the first non-professional productions of two of the most widely discussed hits of the past several seasons on Broadway: the offbeat musical West Side Story, and Friedrich Duerrenmatt's The Visit.

West Side Story burst over the festive first-nighters like fireworks at the Easter Parade. Conceived by Jerome Robbins out of a book by Arthur Laurents, with a nervous, jazzy musical score by Leonard Bernstein and sharp-tongued lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, West Side Story is about as far from the average Broadway musical as The Student Prince is from Wozzeck. In a style that sometimes slashes as savagely as a switchblade, it sets a Romeo-and-Juliet romance between a pair of star-crossed young tenement dwellers amidst the violent rivalry of two New York juvenile gangs.

With almost explosive vitality, the Wharf's production of West Side Story projects its insolent rowdiness, tough-talking idiom, its restless, youthful spirit and its few episodes of lyrical tenderness. The 28 kids in the cast act, dance and sing together with an excitement that overrides individual shortcomings in any one area. Thomas Brock has done a marvelous job of directing them, and Dale Lefler has provided them with choreography which is acrobatic, imaginative and uninhibited.

The Wharf has an outstanding singing actor in Charles Burks, who gives a fine performance as the Polish boy, Tony, and Marie Hummel is charming as his Puerto Rican sweetheart, Maria.

Among the rival "Jets" and "Sharks" and their girls, especially fine characterizations come from Bill K. Houle as the scrappy tough called Action (he leads the Jets in the show's best and rawest number, "Gee, Officer Krupke"), in which our most revered institutions are pulverized with irony; Larry Nie as Baby John; Peggy Ray as the cynical Anita, Randy Allen as her swaggering brother, Bernardo, leader of the Puerto Rican gang, and Mark Vance as Riff, his counterpart in the Jets; and Pat McKnight gives the liveliest comic performance in the show as the feisty tomboy called "Anybody's".

West Side Story's four adult roles are played by Robert Carson (who also devised the mime sequences) as the philosophical pharmacist, Doc; Ronald Robertson as a hard-talking detective; James Watson in a ripe caricature of the busybody type called Glad Hand; and Paul Colman as the hapless Officer Krupke.

The directing and production staff has staged West Side Story with skill and imagination. Ernest Tweedy, as pianist, musical director and orchestrator, leads a pit orchestra in coping with the formidable complexities of Bernstein's score, and Nancy Ness Bowman has done an admirable job as vocal director. Terry McCasky designed the starkly effective sets, and Vern Soden handles the lighting and technical direction. The show is splendidly costumed by Eleanor Gamble, assisted by Ernie Caswell.

West Side Story is strong stuff and a show not to be missed, though it may not appeal to some who like their musicals to be tuneful confections. It plays Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 8:30 o'clock, alternating with The Visit, which has the stage on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 8:30 o'clock.

Chris Brown At Farr Picnic

Here last week end as the guest of his cousin, Senator Fred Farr, and Mrs. Farr was Chris Brown of Houston, Texas. He is the grandson of Mrs. Florence Sharon Brown of Carmel.

During the last war Chris attended Carmel schools. He is now a student at Yale University, working towards a degree in architecture, and a summer school student at the University of California. His brother, Peter, has just received his master's degree in French at Cal and plans to study architecture also. Hamilton Brown, their father, is an architect in Houston. He spent much of his childhood here.

Senator Farr took Chris camping at Big Creek until the evening of the Fourth when they returned to join other guests of the Farris at a beach picnic, also to celebrate Sam Farr's birthday.

Sam could only be home with his parents for a few hours that evening as he is a member of the Los Padres National Forest fire crew at Arroyo Seco station this summer. Others who joined the Farris for the birthday and Independence Day picnic were former Carmel residents Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Baron of Los Angeles and their children, Gerry and Mary, also Mrs. Nancy Emmons and her three children and Mr. and Mrs. Erich Nielsen with their children, all from San Francisco, Kit Syer of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Brewer, Francesca and Nancy Farr.

John Justin DeVine II Born

News has been received here of the birth of John Justin DeVine II on June 10 in Stuttgart, Germany. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawrence DeVine (Genevieve Christian). Mrs. Thomas Christian of Carmel Valley and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. DeVine of Monroe, Michigan, are John's grandparents.

Adobe Tour Saturday

Hostesses at each house on the Monterey History and Art Association Adobe House Tour on Saturday will wear early California costumes, Mexican dresses or English period clothing from one of the local museums. At Larkia House, the granddaughter of Thomas Oliver Larkin, who built the house in 1835, will be hostess at a formal afternoon tea. Free booklets with pictures and short histories of each adobe will be presented at Colton Hall. Tour guests may choose the order of their visits, both in the afternoon and evening hours. Free transportation will be available.

To British Command School

Lieutenant Colonel James Harvey Short, Mrs. Short and their three children have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Short for the past two weeks. They leave shortly for the East to embark for England where Lieutenant Colonel Short will spend the next two years at the British General Command School located near the Royal Military College at Sandhurst in Surrey.

Lieutenant Colonel Short came here following a tour of duty at the U. S. Army General Command and Staff School, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. He is going to England on an officers exchange program between the British and United States Armies. He will instruct British army officers in the procedures and techniques of our army. In exchange a British officer will come to Fort Leavenworth to instruct American officers about the British Army. This program was instituted so that armies of both countries may operate together more efficiently in the NATO program in Europe.

Lieutenant Colonel Short is the son of James Short and the nephew of Douglas Short, both former residents of Carmel.

Mr. Woolfenden's photo shows his daughter, Joyce, standing on a hillside with wildflowers spreading a colorful carpet beneath her feet. It was taken on a weekend outing at a nearby ranch.

Visitors From Stockton

San Joaquin County Superior Court Judge George Buck of Modesto with Mrs. Buck and their sons, Edward and Thomas, have taken the Wiegman cottage on San Carlos Street until September. Mrs. Buck is the niece of Mrs. Carmel Martin.

Wurzmann Town House Recital

Marjorie Wurzmann will repeat at Town House on Wednesday afternoon the piano program that she recently played in Berkeley as a memorial to her father, the late Dr. Robert Legge, University of California physician. The program begins at 3:00 o'clock and includes selections of the music of Bach, Debussy, Mozart, Beethoven and Scriabin.

Carmelites Visit Ghost Towns

Mrs. Armiger Dredge and Mrs. Zoe Roberts returned this week from a fortnight's trip in Amador County. They visited historical spots and interesting early California ghost towns. Their headquarters were in a mountain cabin near Silver and Twin Lakes on Highway 88.

At the end of May, Mrs. Dredge and Mrs. Roberts spent several days in Yosemite. Leaving Yosemite Valley they drove to Sonoma and Placerville, then continued into Nevada with stops at Carson City, Silver City, Virginia City and Reno. They returned by way of Lake Tahoe, Squaw Valley and Donner Pass over Highway 40, visiting historical spots along the way.

"All this on my account?"

says Janet Blair

Us: Well—ah—actually, Miss Blair, we do this on everybody's account.

Janet: You mean there are 59 services available to everybody with a Savings Account at Bank of America?

Us: Sure. Everything from cashing a check to financing a swimming pool. And don't forget there's also the extra safety and availability of your funds to be considered.

Janet: That's wonderful! Where else could you get all these extra services except at a bank. I bet you'd even help me if I wanted to replace my furniture, wouldn't you?

Us: I'm sure we could make some sort of arrangement.

Janet: Well that's just fine, because I'd like the piano over there, and then the big table will go under the window and

PILOT MARKET

LITTLE LEAGUE CHAMPS

Manager Art Carpenter's Pilot Market Little League squad survived a shaky second inning in its playoff game with Jack Cate's Wilder & Jones nine to surge back for an 11-2 win to garner the 1960 Little League Championship. By winning this year's title, the grocers join San Carlos Realty, 1957, and 1959, and Boys' Town, 1958, as titleholders during the league's four-year history. Wilder & Jones won the first-half title this season, but ran into fielding trouble during the second-half and in the sudden-death playoff game with Pilots.

The plumbers took an early 2-0 lead in the playoff game as pitcher Kim Roberts lashed a booming home run with Dennis Jones on base in the second inning. However, Pilot pitcher, Tim Head, took charge following Robert's big blast and blanked W&J until his mates could get the go-ahead runs. Curt Mitchell and Ronnie Parsons pitched the last three innings for the winners, doling out two hits between them.

Chuck Pearson, Ronnie Parsons, Ronnie Fukagawa and Tim Head were the big sticks for the 1960 Champs, each getting three hits with Pearson scoring three runs and Parsons and Head getting two apiece. Robert's homer was the power blast for the losers, but Jeff Dinsmore, rookie third-baseman, hit for the big average, stroking two singles in two trips to the plate.

Playing for the runner-up Wilder & Jones squad were Jimmy Zils, Jack Mahoney, Jeff Dinsmore, Dennis Jones, Kim Roberts, Dick Thomas, Hart Silverie, Gary Connell, Mike Hutchinson, Tony Helm and Bradley Jones. The Pilot Market team was manned by Curt Mitchell, Mike Spowart, Terry Morsolf, Ronnie Parsons, Chuck Pearson, Tim Head, Pat Hall, Ronnie Fukagawa, Scott Lemons, Steve Mason and Kevin Hale. Guiding the Wilder & Jones team were manager Steve Cate and coach Jim Kelsey. Manager Art Carpenter and coach Floyd Carter pulled the strategy strings for the Pilot Market gang.

Further Little League playoffs are scheduled for the month of August when Pilot Market makes a run for the area and district titles. On August 6, Pilot will host the winner of the Carmel Valley Little League in a 3:00 o'clock game. On August 13, the winner of the Pilot-Carmel Valley entry will journey to King City for playoff action against the winners of the Salinas, Salinas Valley and Hollister-Gilroy areas.

LITTLE LEAGUE BARBECUE AT FAIRGROUNDS SUNDAY

Upwards of 175 Little Leaguers, parents, fans, boosters and officials will gather at the Monterey County Fairgrounds this Sunday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock for the annual chicken barbecue which is designed to celebrate another highly-successful Little League season. Tickets for the barbecue may be secured from any of the team managers, president Bob Connell, Bill Woolsey and may also be purchased at the Fairgrounds.

Besides the tasty chicken barbecue, participants will be honored with awards and graduation certificates for players who have completed their Little League tenure. This year's league winners are Pilot Market in the major circuit and the Little Sparrows in the Farm Team League.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT AT PEBBLE BEACH

The Pebble Beach Invitational Tennis Tournament, featuring leading national and California amateurs, will be held this week end at the Pebble Beach Tennis Club.

Men's singles and doubles will be played starting at 2:00 o'clock tomorrow, followed by play all day Saturday, with semi-finals scheduled at 10:30 o'clock Sunday and finals at 2:30 that afternoon.

Tom Brown of San Francisco, national ranking player, is seeded number one, while Bill Crosby of Berkeley is number two.

Others entered in the tournament are: Norman Brooks, Brooks Rawlins, Stanley Smith, all of San Francisco; Willie Hernandez, Davis Cup Squad member from Manila; George Stoesser, number one player at the University of Arizona; Barry Baskin, Pebble Beach Tennis Club member who is California State Junior Champion; Bill Demas and Jack Bowker of Sacramento; Tom Edelson of San Leandro; John Hilton, University of California; Dave Wisnom, Pebble Beach; Paul Neuman, Jr., Dr. Richard Creedon and Yvan Nopert, Carmel.

CIRCLING THE BASES

Paul Artellan's Carmel Merchant softball team did an excellent job in reaching the finals of the recently-concluded Tri-County Softball Tournament, but ran into the indefatigable Jim Morton in the finals and bowed to the championship Peninsula Paint nine. Pitcher Morton, a workhorse in the truest sense, pitched every inning for the Paint crew and was undefeated during the entire double-elimination affair. . . . Carmel's Babe Ruth League aggregation is currently enjoying a two-game win streak since it clipped the Pacific Grove Merchants, 3 to 1, last Sunday at the PG park. A steady two-hit pitching performance by Forrest Cornwall and fine (Continued on Page B) outfield play by Joe Fernandez sparked Hadley Hicks' gang to the victory. The local Babe Ruthers wind up the season this Saturday in a 3:00 o'clock game against the Monterey Moose at Monterey's El Estero Park. This week's games were originally scheduled for the Carmel High diamond, but league officials moved the games to Monterey because of dangerous playing conditions at the Carmel field. ... Little Darryl Dawson, pitching ace of the Little League Farm Teams, hurled the Little Sparrows to a 7-6 win over Village Inn to give Dr. True's charges the 1960 Farm League Championship. Jim Gray drove in two runs in the sixth heat to knot the count at 6-6 and Greg True bunted across the winning marker in the last frame. Jerry Erk paced the losers with two doubles and a single in three times at bat. Members of the Farm Team Champs are Greg True, Darryl Dawson, John Braderick, Don Zils, Brad Gray, Rusty Vandervort, David Kawanankoa, Gary Ebersold, Jimmy Gray and Greg Campbell. ... Jack Giles' Carmel Youth Center nine got off to a good start in the Monterey Recreation Department's Socko League by clipping the Pacific Grove Rec Club, 11 to 6. The teen-agers of Carmel's popular play spot are scheduled for action every Friday night in the Monterey Socko League. Tomorrow night the YC clashes with the Monterey Optimists in a 7:00 o'clock game at Jacks Park. In the Youth Center Thursday night league, Andy Gray, a veteran of five years' play in the intramural circuit, suffered the humiliation of being struck out by Director Giles and was rewarded with a gold star in the trophy case. ... Figures compiled by George Macy, scoring chief of the Carmel Little League, show Newt Goodrich's Boys' Town team to be the top hitting squad in the league with a .233 average. Jack Miller's San Carlos Realty crew tops the fielders with an .848 mark. Individual batting champ was Jim Sparolini with an even .500. Sparolini and Clinton Macy were tied for home run honors, each clubbing four round-trippers during the season. Craig Cunningham, Clint Macy and Kim Roberts were runners-up to Sparolini in the hitting department, all hitting well over .400. ... Van King and Bill Rosenkranz have guided the Dodgers to the top spot in the Pony League-type Community League but the position is a precarious one as the other three entries are nipping at their heels. The Dodgers clipped Carmel Valley and Jack Miller's Braves, but fell victims to Bill Woolsey and Howard Baxter's Giants in Tuesday night's fracas. The Giants could solve the pitching of Howdy King and Ronnie Jella for only four hits, but they made good use of the four hits to push across 11 runs. Tim Mosolf went the distance for the Giants, giving up six hits, three walks and striking out ten Dodger swingers. Skip Burton, with two-for-three, led the Giant hitters with Mike Paul, Howdy King and Ron Jella getting all the Dodger hits. Good baseball action put on by these 13-14 year olds every weekday evening at the Carmel High School diamond. President Ralph Thompson and his staff deserve a lot of credit for providing this healthy recreational activity for the Carmel teen-agers.

SANTA BARBARA RACES

Carmel yachtsmen placed first, third and fifth in the Semana Nautica Fourth of July week end Mercury class races in Santa Barbara. George Yates won an engraved silver cup for over-all first place in the series of three races. Mark Raggett won a silver cup for placing third over-all. Richard Catlin placed fifth in the three-day race event.

Matt Jenkins and Herbert Vial were the other Stillwater Cove Yacht Club members who competed in the Semana Nautica races at the invitation of the Santa Barbara Yacht Club.

Public Invited To Organ Concert At Wayfarer Church

Michelle Batinic, French organist, will present a program on Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock on the Memorial Pipe Organ at the Church of the Wayfarer. A pupil of Marie-Claire Alain in Paris, she also studied with Karl Richter in Munich, Germany, for two years before coming to the United States.

Wednesday's concert, sponsored by the Couples Club of the church, will feature compositions of J. S. Bach, including: Fantasia and Fugue in A minor, In Dulci Jubilo, and Prelude and Fugue in C major, also Cesar Franck's Choral in B minor and Jehan Alain's Litanie.

Mrs. Batinic has lived on the Monterey Peninsula during the time her husband has taught Serbo-Croatian at the Army Language School, but leaves later this month for Iowa where he will teach.

Refreshments will be served in Fellowship Hall at the conclusion of the concert, to which the public is invited.

Emle's Featured In New Zealand Journal

The cover of the March issue of New Zealand's Building trade journal, Building Progress, is a picture of "a modern American sweet shop." It is Emle's candy store on Dolores Street above Sixth Avenue.

Inside the magazine is a two-page picture spread of the interior of the Carmel shop. Emphasized as features of Carmel business and home architecture are Dutch doors and open beamed ceilings, according to an accompanying caption and article. Photographs are by John Livingston of Carmel.

The article also states that the "quaint architecture has proved a great drawcard for customers and should provide an idea for prospective shop-owners in New Zealand, where business is going these days to premises that catch and hold the eye."

Van Der Veer Leads Daily Nature Walks At Lobos State Park

Naturalist services began last week end at Point Lobos and will continue to September. During the summer Judson Van der Veer will lead nature walks through Cypress Grove, also conduct groups through the park if arrangements are made in advance. He will be available after trips for information at Sea Lion Rock and Bird Island. Every Tuesday Mr. Van der Veer will give a talk on Point Lobos at Big Sur State Park campfire.

Park naturalist Van der Veer conducted similar tours last summer at Point Lobos. He is a science teacher at Salinas High School during the winter. The Cypress Grove tours are scheduled for each afternoon at 2:00 o'clock and last for an hour. Arranged tours will be given at any time the park is open to the public before 2:00 o'clock and after 3:00 o'clock.

PAUL PRINCE AT FORT LEWIS

Cadet Paul T. Prince, son of Mrs. Dorothy Prince of Carmel, will be at Fort Lewis, Washington, until July 29. He is attending Army Reserve Officer Training Corps camp.

Paul has just finished his junior year at Stanford University where he is a member of Theta Delta Chi fraternity. He graduated from Carmel High School in 1957.

Park System has refused to appropriate money for this purpose. Quoting the Sierra Club April-May Bulletin: "The National Park System is being endangered again to avoid making good on a promise accepted in good faith. Possibly the only way out now will at this late date require great courage—but be worth it: let the Secretary of the Interior, if he has no funds to start the proper protective works at once, direct that further construction at Glen Canyon Dam cease until funds are provided to allow him to live up to the agreement made in good faith by the Administration and the Congress. Would you back him if he did? Let him know!"

I am writing him today. I hope others will follow.

July 2, 1960

Hon. Fred A. Seaton,
Secretary of the Interior,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

Conservationists who are interested in protecting Rainbow Bridge from the rising waters of Glen Canyon Reservoir need your help. Since Congress has failed to make good on the agreement written into the Colorado River Storage Project Act to appropriate funds for this purpose, the only alternative seems to be for you to stop construction on Glen Canyon until these funds have been provided.

Since it is your duty to protect units of the National Park System, and since no other way of doing it is provided, I believe that you should take such action at once. I am sure that it would meet with the approval of the majority of the voters of this country who helped you protect Dinosaur National Monument from the building of Echo Park Dam.

Very sincerely,
C. Edward Graves

Hostess To Symphony League

Miss Mary Lindsay-Oliver invited conductors, composers and critics, attending American Symphony League and National Music Critics' Association meetings at Asilomar, to have tea at her studio on Monday afternoon, also to meet local musicians and present and past board members of the Monterey County Symphony Association. Miss Lindsay-Oliver is a member of both the Symphony League and music critics' association and an ardent supporter of the local symphony. She also writes the Music on the Peninsula column for this paper.

Among the 40 to 50 persons who gathered for the impromptu party were Mrs. Helen Thompson, executive secretary of the Symphony League, with her husband, Carl Thompson, member of the league's Asilomar orchestra; Dr. Richard Lert, conductor of the Pasadena Symphony and Dr. Erno Daniel, conductor of the Santa Barbara Symphony, directors of the League workshop at Asilomar; Miles Kasendieck, music critic of the New York Journal-American and president of the National Critics' Association; Mrs. Ruth Tripp, critic for the Providence Rhode Island Journal Bulletin; Stanley Butler of Salem, Oregon, critic for the Oregon Statesman; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Havelin from Northridge; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sherman, St. Louis, Missouri; John Hiersoux, New Mexico conductor, and Mrs. Hiersoux. Ten states were represented by the out-of-town guests.

Local guests included the Reverend H. M. M. Nicholas, symphony board member and player who is also vice president of the Bach Festival Board; Ralph Linsley, festival pianist and nationally known accompanist; Mrs. Grace Howden, honorary president of the Monterey County Symphony; Stanley Cummings, local league representative, and Mrs. Cummings, symphony and league orchestra player; Eugene Harrah, first vice president of the Monterey Symphony; Fritz Wurzmann, past president, and Mrs. Wurzmann; Mrs. Nancy Ness Bowman; Mrs. Louise Friedhofer Vadetsky, league and symphony cellist; Mrs. Londa Podberesky, composer; Mrs. Elizabeth DuVal, violinist with both groups; local critic, Jack Benson; Mrs. Roma Philbrook, manager of Asilomar; Mrs. Philip Schneeberger; and Mr. and Mrs. King Benton.

Miss Lindsay-Oliver's studio was decorated for the occasion with flowers from the gardens of Mrs. Willard Wheeler and Mrs. Grace Howden. The hostess was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Mary Louise Waterbury, Mrs. Rose Marie Alvarez and Miss Kit Barton.

Lindsay-Oliver Houseguests

Miss Pauline Junke from San Francisco and her cousin, Miss Mildred Junke of Cleveland, Ohio, were overnight guests of Miss Mary Lindsay-Oliver last week end. They were in Carmel on Saturday and Sunday.

Party Celebrates Two Events

A party Sunday evening in the former Pacific Biological Laboratory on Cannery Row celebrated Kurt von Meier's birthday and Skipper Lloyd's return from active Army duty in Georgia and New Mexico. Kurt's bride of five months, Hildegard, and Skip's bride of six months, Sue, met on this occasion for the second time. The first was in New Jersey when Skip and Sue stopped briefly to see Kurt and Hildegard in Princeton on a cross-country trip.

Kurt is studying Japanese this summer on a grant from Stanford University. He returns to Princeton University in the fall to complete work for a master's degree in the history of Japanese art for which he has a Wilson fellowship.

Skip left Tuesday for Menlo Park where he will live temporarily. He graduated from Boalt Hall, University of California Law School, before serving in the Army. Kurt and Skip's friendship began at Sunset School, continued at Carmel High School where they were members of the graduating class of 1952, and also at the University of California before Kurt left two years ago to do postgraduate work at the University of Madrid.

Surprise For Adrienne And Diana

Adrienne and Diana Thomas, daughters of Mrs. Don Lyon, will spend the rest of the summer in the East visiting their grandparents. This evening they will be surprised at a farewell party that Lesley and Robin Strosnider are giving. Lesley is a classmate of Adrienne's at Carmel High School. They will be sophomores in September. Robin and Diana both graduated from Sunset this year.

Julie Mayer Married In Chicago

Milton Mayer arrived home in Carmel on Tuesday from an Eastern trip which included attending the marriage on July 3 in Chicago of his older daughter, Julie, to Roger Bergman. Mr. Mayer gave his daughter in marriage. The ceremony took place in the home of her mother, Mrs. Bertha Mayer.

Julie and her husband plan to visit Carmel later in the summer or at Christmas time. Both will study for doctorate degrees at the University of Chicago this winter. Julie in English, Roger in the social thought field of philosophy. The latter is an architectural construction engineer associated with the Chicago Bauhaus group. Julie is an English instructor on the faculty of the University of Wisconsin.

The day following the wedding, Milton Mayer delivered a Fourth of July oration in Frederick, Maryland, before the Fellowship of Reconciliation, an affiliation of American churches. He also spoke while in the East at Circle Pines Center, a camp in Michigan, maintained by the League of United States Co-operatives.

Manager Newt Goodrich Honored

Tuesday evening Newton Goodrich, manager of Boys' Town Little League Team, thought he was going to an amateur radio operators' meeting with assistant team manager Dick Rohr. Instead Mr. Goodrich was surprised to find himself guest of honor at a dinner given for him by team members and their fathers. The affair was held in the private dining room of Maxey's Chuck Wagon. Manager Goodrich was presented with a Coleman camp stove and a baseball autographed by members of the team he had guided to a three-way second place tie in this season's Little League play.

Gene Bray, father of team member Michael Bray, organized the dinner for the fathers who highly appreciate Mr. Goodrich's work with their boys. "You bought me the mit, but Mr. Goodrich taught me to play", was the remark of Michael Bray to his father.

Members of the team at the dinner were Gerry Russell, Clinton Macy, David Eagle, Gary Newton, Jack Campbell, Gerald Pullen, Eric Danysh, Mark Snopkowski, Michael Bray and Richard Oleson. Unable to attend because of illness was Tom Verser. Team bat boy Mark Goodrich was another guest, also John Gamble. Fathers present were Gene Bray, Ed Russell, George Macy, Clyde Eagle, Robert E. Newton, John Campbell, James Pullen, Joe Danysh, Lieutenant Commander E. L. Snopkowski and Captain Fort Verser. Norman L. Oleson, father of Richard Oleson, was unable to attend.

to no effect, he said. The fire hydrant the students recommended at Twelfth Avenue and Scenic will be considered at budget session when the water company will have a report on the cost; the students' proposal that the planning commission control lighting of signs and store fronts is incorporated in one of the sections of the proposed new zoning ordinance.

Ramona Weer, (Mrs. Lloyd Weer) has been appointed an assistant manager at Crocker-Anglo National Bank's Carmel office, it was announced by President Paul E. Hoover.

Mrs. Weer joined The Bank of Carmel, predecessor of Crocker-Anglo's Carmel office in August, 1948 and had varied assignments, including 12 years of experience in the note department, at that institution. When The Bank of Carmel merged into Crocker-Anglo in September, 1959, Mrs. Weer, who was serving as an assistant cashier at the former bank, continued in that capacity at the Crocker-Anglo office. Under her new title, Mrs. Weer will supervise the operations and personnel departments at the Carmel banking unit.

The new assistant manager is a member of the board of governors of the Monterey Chapter of the American Institute of Banking.

Crocker-Anglo's Carmel office, located at Ocean Avenue and Dolores Street, is managed by Vice President A. F. Halle and is one of five Crocker-Anglo units on the Monterey Peninsula.

Woods' 58th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wood were married 58 years ago on Monday, Independence Day. "Everyone celebrates our anniversary," says Mr. Wood. This year several friends called at the Woods' home to congratulate them on their many years of married life. Mr. Wood promises there will be a really big party two years from now when he and his wife celebrate their diamond wedding anniversary.

Toastmasters' Seventh Birthday

The Carmel Toastmasters celebrated their seventh anniversary at a dinner-meeting held at Tom's Cafe last night. Former officers and members were invited to attend the commemoration. A birthday cake with candles highlighted the table decoration. A former president, Victor Velissaratos, reviewed the club's history and he also presented Lloyd Campbell, who has just completed his term of office as president, with the club's past-president pin.

Richard Brown was the Toastmaster of the evening. Talks were given by Dr. Hal Funk, Ted Minnis and Ron Chavez. Ken Nightly acted as Table Topics Master and Clem Trapkus was the evaluator.

ANNOUNCES THE RE-OPENING OF
HER RESTAURANT ON JULY 4th

It has almost been like OLD HOME WEEK.
All our friends seem glad to see us again—and we are certainly glad to see THEM again.

We welcome new visitors to the Peninsula, and all those who are as yet unacquainted with our fine food and pleasant atmosphere.

MPVS Garden Tour Flower Show Aug. 10

A variety of gardens, two houses and an interior will be included in the ninth Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services' Annual Garden Tour on August 10. Mrs. Rudolph ver Mehr and Mrs. Robert Mackay Brown are co-chairmen for the event. Committee members working with them are Mrs. Archer M. R. Allen, Mrs. Arthur Dresser, Mrs. Carl Hering and Mrs. Edward McMurtry.

Carmel gardens on the tour will be those of Mrs. Robert Wilson Argo, Mrs. Kaye Scott and Mrs. Hede Vasen. Mrs. Roland Klemme will open both her house and garden, also Mrs. Robinson Campbell of Pebble Beach.

A Tour innovation this year is the flower arrangement show, From the Forest to the Sea, that will be located in the former A. King Macomber home (The Ghost House) in Pebble Beach. Mrs. Harold Pullen, flower show chairman, reports that entries in all categories are rapidly nearing completion. The event is open to all Peninsula residents.

Fire Department Has 2 Ambulance One Fire Call

Two ambulance calls and one smoke report were answered by members of the Carmel Volunteer Fire Department this week.

On Sunday afternoon at 1:20 o'clock firemen took the Red Cross ambulance on a medical emergency call to Lincoln Street between Ninth and Tenth Avenues and transported G. Herbert White to the Peninsula Community Hospital.

On Monday the ambulance answered a call to Normandy Inn and took an employee of the Inn, William Kelly, to the hospital. He had presumably received injuries in a fall down stairs.

Last night at 9:40 o'clock ten firemen with one truck investigated a report that there was a fire at Lincoln and Fifth Streets after observing smoke in the vicinity. They found no fire, no cause for the smoke.

County Counsel Takes Action In Marcus Case

intendant Stuart Mitchell took to Salinas Mr. Wheeler's letter and gave it to County Counsel William H. Stoffers, the district's legal representative.

This morning Stoffers stated he would mail a letter today to Mr. Wheeler requesting all evidence or information which led the House Un-American Activities subcommittee to ask Marcus to appear before the committee. Stoffers will inform the school board as soon as he receives an answer to this request.

At the June 1 school board meeting Stoffers told trustees they should discuss the Marcus matter in open session under the provisions of the Brown Act. He also told them that the California Education code states that any school district employee who refuses under oath to answer questions put to the employee before a congressional committee is guilty of insubordination and may be immediately suspended, also dismissed in manner provided by law.

The manner provided by law requires that trustees must have a majority vote for dismissal, substantiated by written charges received or prepared by the board. Also the employee must be served notice of the suspension and given an opportunity to request a hearing before the board within ten days.

The reasons an employee gives at the hearing for refusing to answer questions of a congressional committee will be considered in Superior Court, Stoffers also told the school board on June 1. If a hearing is not granted, the court will not sustain the dismissal charges upon which the court is required to rule.

The school board must be able to prove that the employee refused to answer congressional committee questions and know what the questions were, Stoffers emphasized at the June meeting.

In view of his advice, trustees requested Superintendent Mitchell to ask the subcommittee for a transcript of the May 12 subcommittee hearing at which Martin Marcus allegedly refused to answer questions put to him; also that the subcommittee send to the school board all evidence or information which led the committee to ask Marcus to appear before them.

On June 3 Mr. Mitchell sent a letter to the chairman of the subcommittee requesting the information the board wanted. No answer came to this letter so on June 29 Mr. Mitchell addressed a second letter to the same address and sent it by certified mail. Tuesday the reply was received. In it Wheeler said:

"Your letter of June 3 was not received by me in Fullerton or if sent to Washington has not been forwarded to me. With regard to your request for a copy of the transcript, I am requesting our Washington office to forward a copy to you.

"With reference to your request for information concerning Marcus, please be advised that this type of information is given only to the legal representative of the school district. I assume your legal representative would be either the district attorney or the county counsel. If you have your legal representative communicate with me I will be glad to cooperate."

At the June 1 school board meeting, Francis Heisler, attorney for Martin Marcus, stated that his client was willing to appear before the board and give reasons why he had refused to answer questions at the subcommittee hearing.
